#1 "What the Future Holds"

Celebrating Tom & Joan Marcuccilli

LOOK

What material is this sculpture primarily made from? Describe it in two words.

SCAN

Tom Marcuccilli founded a bank that became a household name in Fort Wayne. What is the name of that bank?

REFLECT

The title of this sculpture is "What the Future Holds". What does your future hold? Answer in one sentence.

#5 "Welcome"

Celebrating Dick & Harriett Inskeep

LOOK

What word or phrase is featured most prominently on or near this sculpture?

SCAN

Dick Inskeep came to Fort Wayne in what year to begin at the Journal Gazette? And what was his very first action when he arrived - before he did anything else?

REFLECT

Dick made a point to know everyone, from the carriers to the editor. Who is someone in your community you think deserves more recognition than they get?

#2 "Monkey N' Around"

Celebrating Don & Kathy Steinger

LOOK

Find the monkey sculpture. What is the monkey doing and what color is it?

SCAN

Don Steinger says most young people miss this very first and important step of financial literacy.

REFLECT

Don's career path veered in different directions. If you could pivot to any career tomorrow, what would it be?

#6 "Heart"

Celebrating Maury & Gerry O'Daniel

LOOK

This sculpture is shaped as a heart. What color is it, and approximately how tall do you estimate it to be?

SCAN

When Maury O'Daniel started out, his family had so little that neighbors had to lend them what items?

REFLECT

The O'Daniel family life lesson: "Work hard, share the wealth, share your knowledge, and make everybody a better person." Which of those four things matters most to you, and why?

#3 "Life's Journey"

Celebrating Dick & Deanna Freeland

LOOK

This stop includes two elements - a red bench and labyrinth. How many red benches are represented?

SCAN

Before Dick Freeland ever worked in the restaurant business, what was his original trade or profession?

REFLECT

Dick opened Fort Wayne's first Pizza Hut on East State Street in 1972, and it's still standing. Name one business in Fort Wayne you hope is still standing 50 years from now.

#7 "Glow from Within"

Celebrating Keith Busse

LOOK

What does the sculpture appear to be glowing with or made of? Write one descriptive word.

SCAN

Keith Busse co-founded Steel Dynamics right here in Fort Wayne. Where did he famously pitch the idea to his co-founders? And how many days did it take to secure all of the startup equity?

REFLECT

Everyone told Keith it couldn't be done. Write one thing you would attempt even if people say you couldn't do it.

#4 "Galaxy with Leaves"

Celebrating Mark & Chris Rupp

LOOK

This sculpture actually moves. Watch it for 10 seconds. What causes it to move?

SCAN

Mark Rupp compares the moving pieces of this sculpture to running a business. What does he say is the key to making all those pieces work together?

REFLECT

The sculpture is always changing directions. Describe a time you had to change direction in your own life - what did it teach you?

#8 "Reaching for the Stars"

Celebrating Jim & Pat Marcuccilli

LOOK

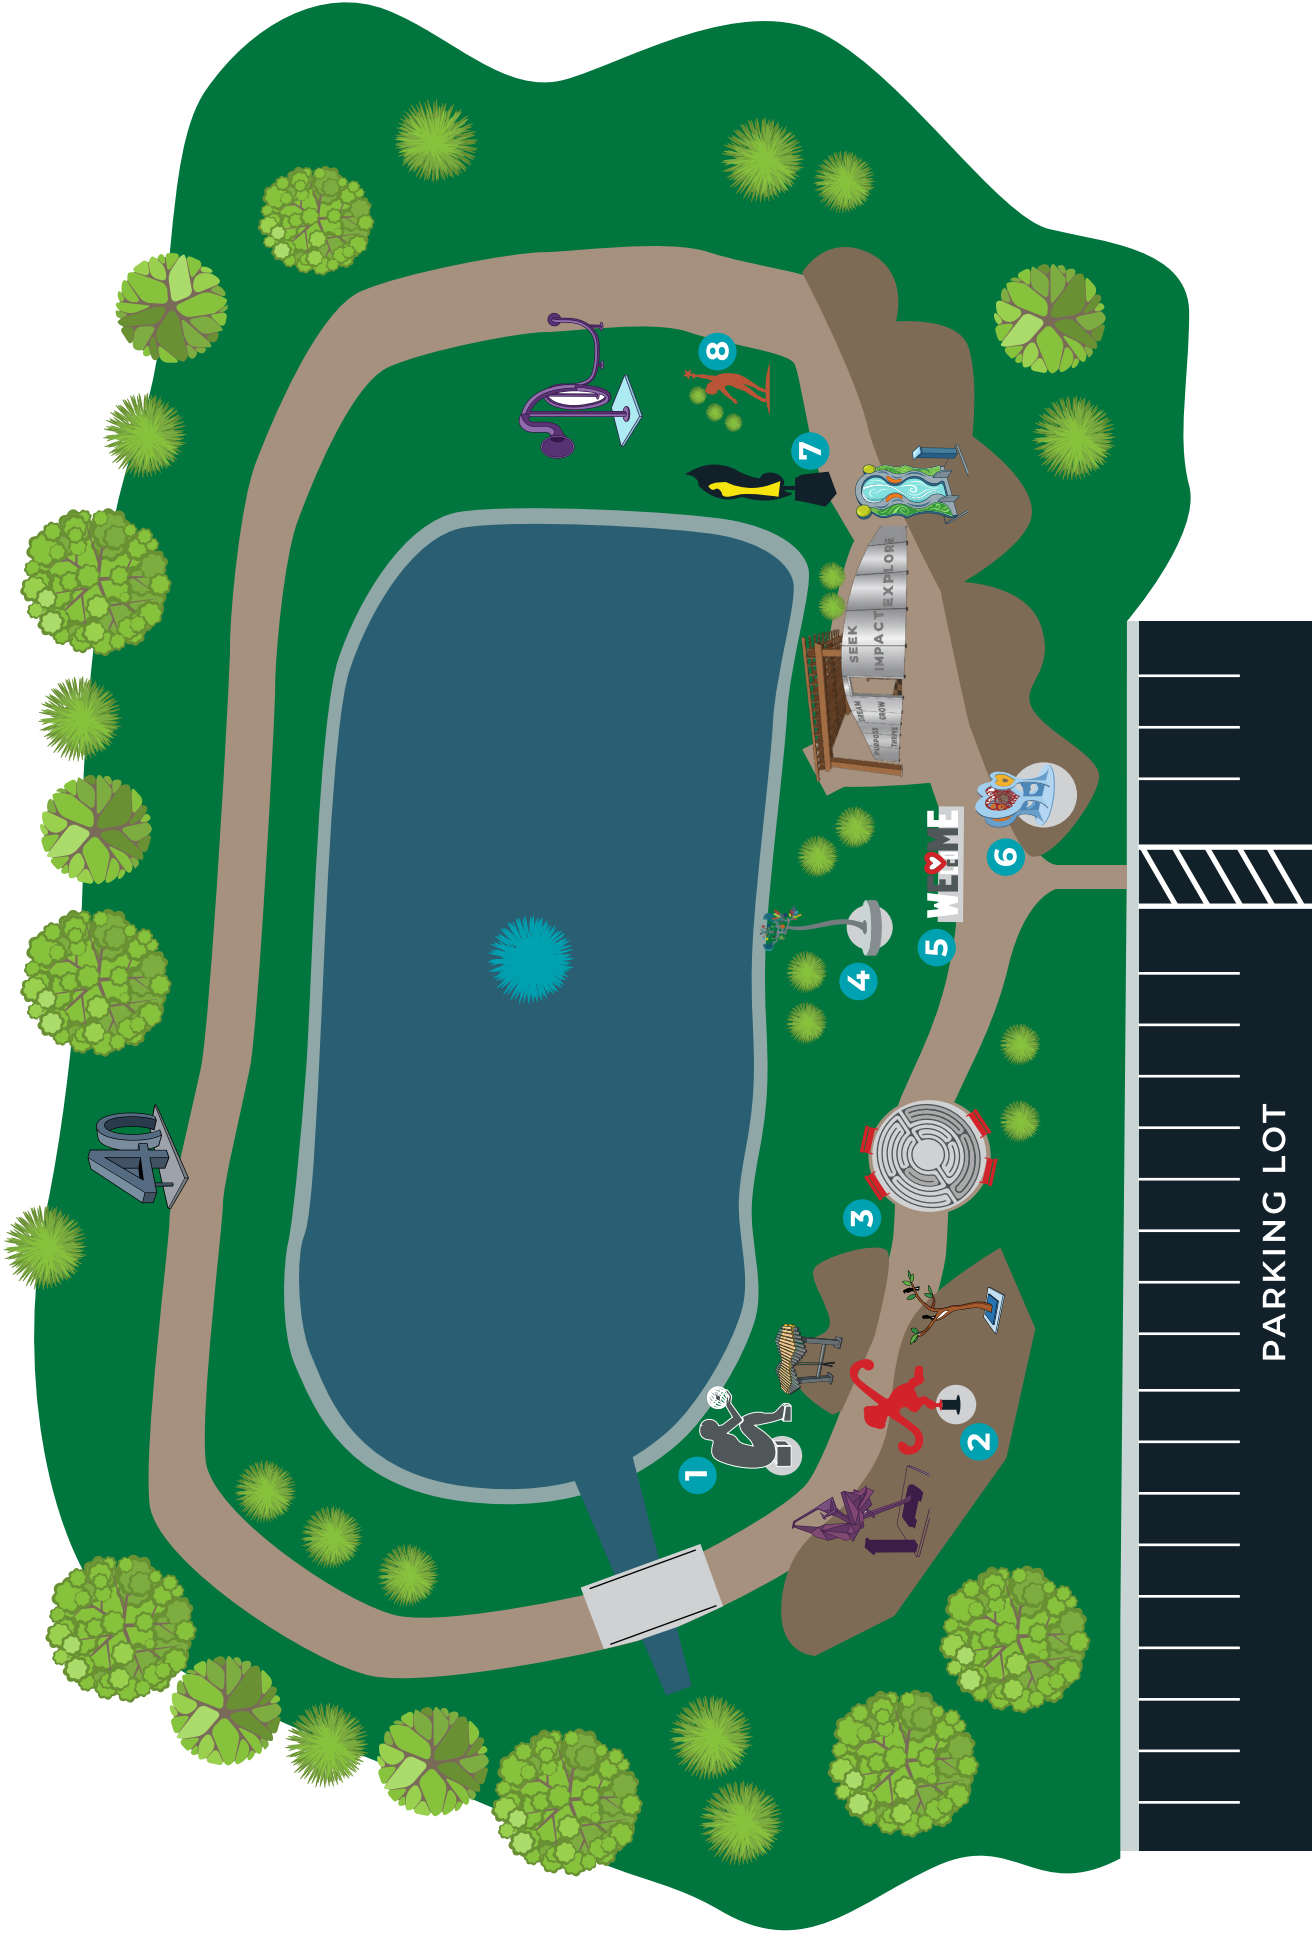

How many points or arms does it have reaching outward? Count carefully!

SCAN

Jim Marcuccilli is the Chairman and CEO of STAR Bank. According to the video, what does Jim say you should do rather than aim for something 'at eye level'?

REFLECT

Jim says struggling to reach your star gives you information, not failure. Write about a struggle that taught you something important.
